

PREPARING FOR SUCCESS YOUR POSTGRADUATE RESEARCH JOURNEY AT UOFG

PRE-ARRIVAL

BEFORE APPLYING

Look at our PGR opportunities page to find out what we offer and which of our PGR degree options is right for you. You can also speak to PGR student ambassadors to understand their experience of PGR life at UofG.

APPLICATION AND OFFERS

The admissions team will be happy to help with any enquiries, providing information and putting you in touch with appropriate teams within the University.

WELCOME TO THE UNIVERSITY OF GLASGOW

INDUCTION

During welcome week, you will be invited to a range of events, all designed to help meet fellow postgraduate researchers and settle into academic and social life at the University of Glasgow.

- Graduate School induction session
- School welcome meetings
- Supervisory team introduction

REGISTRATION

Once you complete academic and financial registration, you will have access to the full range of PGR support available from the University.

CONDUCTING YOUR RESEARCH

INITIAL STAGES

- Establish clear research objectives and methodologies with your supervisory team to create a firm foundation for successful research
- Understand the format of regular contact, formal and informal, with your supervisors (what you can expect from each other and how best to work together)

SUPERVISORY SUPPORT

- Regular meetings per year (12 for full-time students; 6 for part-time students)
- Annual progress review with academic support to ensure you are on track and receive formal feedback on any changes required

The PGR Code of Practice is a helpful guide to important aspects of your research journey.

CONCLUDING AND PRESENTING YOUR RESEARCH

CONCLUDING AND PRESENTING YOUR RESEARCH

As you approach your submission date, your supervisory team and our Graduate School will guide you through the key stages of the thesis submission process.

- Notify your intention to submit
- Examiners' approval and submission of doctoral thesis
- Viva examination
- Outcome, including agreement of any corrections required, if appropriate

CONGRATULATIONS AND GRADUATION